SUMMARY

For the past 10+ years, my career has been all about connecting people, products, and communication. Moving from media and branding into industrial management, I eventually transitioned to leading technical documentation and software projects. Recently, my focus has shifted toward software development and innovative AI automation, where I drive efficiency through AI-augmented workflows. This diverse background allows me to navigate seamlessly between the factory floor, the design studio, and software development sprints.

WORK EXPERIENCE

APR 2026
JUL 2026

PROJECT MANAGER
SIGMA TECHNOLOGY HUNGARY

Managed the end-to-end lifecycle of innovative multi-agent AI automation projects from prototyping to production. Directed cross-functional sprints, defined "Definitions of Done," and led agile retrospectives to maintain high velocity. Oversaw project scoping, Azure cloud deployments, and AI token-consumption tracking while aligning milestones with client business objectives.
